COME TO BOOK FAIR 5749 Oct. 30 - Nov. 2

Come and see what is NEW and what is CLASSIC in the Jewish Book World at BOOK FAIR, 5749, from Sunday, October 30 through Wednesday, November 2 in Room 308.

BOOK FAIR WILL BE OPEN:

Sunday . . . . . 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Monday . . . . . 12 Noon - 8 p.m.

Tuesday . . . . . 12 Noon - 8 p.m.

Wednesday . . . . . 12 Noon - 9 p.m.

Available for purchase at BOOK FAIR are Jewish books of all description, for all interests and for all ages: fiction, non-fiction, specialty books, children's books. In other words, the best there is to enhance Jewish home libraries. Special orders for books will be taken.

Congregants attending meetings and/or events at the synagogue during BOOK FAIR are invited to come to the synagogue a little early for their meetings and spend some time browsing at BOOK FAIR.

Parents whose children attend the Early Childhood Center are invited to come and browse before they pick up their children, as well as to come with their children after school, to make selections from the wide choice of books offered for that age group.

The children who attend the Religious School will visit BOOK FAIR with their classes, but parents are encouraged to come at the same time to assist their children in making their selections.

BOOK FAIR 5749 is sponsored by Parents Association and co-chaired by Barbara Sassoon and Joan Schreiber. BOOK FAIR is for everyone: members of the congregation, families, friends, community. Spread the word!!

What's New For You In The Sherr Institute

Classes begin in the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies this month. Meeting in the morning, afternoon or evening, the opportunity to begin and to continue the exploration of what it means to be a Jew awaits you.

Study the tractate of the Talmud, Avodah Zara, the tractate which deals with our relations with the gentile world, with Rabbi Lincoln on the four Wednesday evenings in October, from 8 to 9 p.m.

Cantor Kula will review and/or teach anyone who wants to learn the cantillations for the Shabbat and festival haftarot on four Tuesday evenings from 8 to 9 p.m., beginning October 11.

Was your New Year's resolution to learn Hebrew this year? Then choose your level and begin your study with Mrs. Vivian Finkel in one of her many graded courses which meet morning, afternoon or evening.

And for those "early birds" who are at their best early in the day and for those who bring their children to our Early Childhood Center, there is a class led by Rabbi Lincoln every Tuesday, beginning October 11, from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. entitled "Torah & Life", a study of the enduring insights of our sages into the human condition.

Consult the Sherr Institute catalog for more information about these and other courses to come. Make the time this year to study in the Sherr Institute.

Alan Levine, Rita Lewis Rand and Henry Schneider will be honored by Park Avenue Synagogue in recognition of their outstanding contributions to the synagogue and to the Jewish community during the Simhat Torah service, Tuesday, October 4, beginning at 9:15 a.m. Alan Levine will be called to the Torah as Hatan Torah; Rita Lewis Rand as Kallah Mafteret; Henry Schneider as Hatan Bereshit.

Following the service, the congregation is invited to a buffet luncheon reception on the Lower Level in honor of our honorees and their families.

Alan Levine

Alan Levine is perhaps best known to the congregation as our premiere Shofar Blower and a regular Haftarah reader. He is a vice-president of the congregation and is in his third year as co-chair of the School Board. He has also served as the Chairman of the Adult Education Committee. It was during his tenure as the chairman of this committee that the annual Shabbaton and the Lunch 'N' Study program were initiated and Secretary of State George Shultz accepted an invitation to deliver the annual Sherr Lecture.

Mr. Levine is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, Wharton School of Finance and Commerce and the New York University School of Law, where he was Editor of the Law Review. Prior to entering private law practice, he served as an Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York.

He and his wife, Nancy, have two children, Emily and Malcolm, who attend the Park Avenue Synagogue Religious School.

... What IF ... ?

The opening speeches of the Israeli election campaign have pointed out the great danger inherent in the nearness of the "West Bank" to the main population centers of Israel. Just a few miles separate the strategic high places in Samaria and Judea from the coastal cities and the Ben Gurion Airport.

The situation in England during World War II was not too different. Only a few miles (less than 18 in some places) of ocean separated Nazi occupied Europe from the United Kingdom, and, although many tens of thousands died during the 'Blitz', we were a lot luckier than those so near by.

My father, serving in the Royal Navy at the time, always says that he was 'safe' as the Navy had orders to go to Canada should Britain be invaded. But what would happen to those who were left behind worried him and he pleaded with my mother to leave with my sister and me. Fortunately, Winston Churchill was as stubborn as my mother, and all was well with us. Just a few years ago, while going around one of the museums in Auschwitz, I noticed a list prepared by the Nazis for the receiving of English Jews! Not too much doubt what would have happened if. . . .

Interestingly, however, there was another list that was found a few years ago, and this too was prepared by the Gestapo. It is a Black List of over 2000 people in Britain, Jews and non-Jews, who were marked down to be liquidated when the Nazis made what they expected would be their successful invasion.

The official list contained over 150 Jewish names. Since it was compiled by the Gestapo in 1940, the number has been steadily dwindling. World figures such as Sigmund Freud, Stefan Zweig, Rabbi Dr. Hertz, Dr. Chaim Weizmann, Jabotinsky have died. Amongst the list of survivors - they should live and be well! - is my father! Certainly it is an honor to appear on such a list and I am proud that he can now take great satisfaction in the fact that he took a very active part in defeating the compilers of the infamous list.

By the way, during those war years my father knew a certain Lt. Col. Judah Nadich of the United States Army, but that is another story.

Once A Month Dinner Celebrates The Sabbath

Once a month, the Shabbat Dinner Committee extends an invitation to the congregation to join in a celebration of the Shabbat, when, after services on Friday evening, a traditional Shabbat Dinner is held on the Lower Level.

The first of these dinners was held in the Sukkah on Friday evening, September 30. The next dinner will take place on Friday, October 21 and will be co-sponsored by the Couples Club.

With prayer and song, good fellowship and good cheer, participants will greet and celebrate the Sabbath together.

Plan now to attend at least one of these unique dinners this year with your family and friends. It is a "not to be missed" experience.

Congregation Welcome To Service For Hoshana Rabba

Hoshana Rabba - the great Hoshana - takes place on the seventh day of Sukkot, Sunday, October 2.

On this day, seven circuits are made around the synagogue while carrying a lulav and etrog. After the final circling of the synagogue the willows (aravot) are beaten, thrashed, against the floor so that the leaves fall off. This action symbolizes a beating off or a removal of our sins. In this way Hoshana Rabba is connected to Yom Kippur, for on this day it is believed that the gates of judgment finally close. Hoshana Rabba concludes this period of the liturgical calendar known as the "Days of Awe".

The service on Hoshana Rabba begins at 9:15 a.m. Come and bring family and friends.

Sisterhood Open Meeting "To Bear Witness"

Sisterhood invites its members and the community to its open meeting "To Bear Witness", Tuesday, October 18 at 1 p.m.

Dr. David L. Blumenfeld, Executive Director of the New York Holocaust Memorial Commission, and Valerie Furth, a Holocaust survivor, artist and sculptor, will be the guest speakers.

Dr. Blumenfeld will speak on the evolving plans to build a museum and center in Battery Park-City dedicated to the memory of those who perished in the Holocaust, while Mrs. Furth will present an illustrated talk stressing the necessity to remember.

A Coffee Hour follows the program.

Television Documentary Recalls Kristallnacht

On Sunday, November 6, WNYC-TV will present the world premiere of the documentary, "More Than Broken Glass: Memories of Kristallnacht". This documentary is the first American film on this event and commemorates the 50th anniversary of the night of November 9, 1938 which marked the beginning of the Holocaust.

A year in the making, this hour long documentary is a MUST SEE. In New York City, WNYC-TV can be seen on UHF Channel 31 and on Cable Channel 3. Check your newspaper for the time it will be shown. See it with your family and friends. And remember.

Services Available To AIDS Patients

As the AIDS epidemic widens and more and more of the community, Jews and non-Jews alike, is affected, the Volunteer Services to AIDS Clients (VSAC) of the Jewish Board of Family and Children's Services is seeking to enlarge its outreach program.

Providing social and emotional help to the victims of the AIDS virus, this outreach program is available to provide needed services to those afflicted with this disease.

For more information, please call the Jewish Board of Family and Children's Services, 582-9100. Volunteer help is always needed.

Respite Program Thanks Synagogue, Seeks Volunteers

Park Avenue Synagogue received a recognition from the Brookdale Center on Aging at a luncheon held to honor host sites and volunteers of its community respite program. Accepting a plaque on behalf of the Synagogue was Melanie Schneider, Assistant to the Executive Director.

The Respite Program, which meets weekly at Park Avenue Synagogue, provides an opportunity for home caretakers to have some free time from their responsibilities in caring for memory impaired patients.

Volunteers play a significant role in the success of this program by providing a warm, accepting atmosphere and assisting the professionals with activities such as arts and crafts, sing-a-long and ballroom dancing. A monthly support group is also offered to give caregivers an opportunity to discuss mutual concerns.

If you are caring for someone with Alzheimer's Disease or a memory impairment and would like to benefit from this service or if you would like to be a volunteer in this program, please contact Adele Goldberg at the Brookdale Center on Aging of Hunter College at 481-4350.

Women's Evening Group Supper "For Members Only"

On Monday evening, October 24, the Women's Evening Group will host a Buffet Supper "for members only" at the home of its member, Sally Brooks.

The Women's Evening Group extends an invitation to the women of the congregation and their women friends to join them in a year of thought provoking programs, social evenings and special events. Membership dues are $25 a year, with a free year's membership extended to the new members of the congregation.

A drawing will be held on the evening of October 24 of those women who have renewed their membership and those women who are new members of the organization. The prize: two tickets to the Broadway show of the winner's choice.

To apply for membership or to learn more about the Women's Evening Group, please call the Synagogue Office, 369-2600. A member of the Executive Board of the Women's Evening Group will return your call.

Everyone IS NEEDED!

Synagogue Thanked For Assisting Ethiopian Family

The American Rabbinic Network for Ethiopian Jewry has presented Park Avenue Synagogue with a signed and numbered serigraph, "The Queen of Sheba Visiting King Solomon", by the Israeli artist, Shlomo Katz in appreciation of the synagogue's support of the rescue attempt of an Ethiopian Jewish family.

The purpose of the American Rabbinic Network for Ethiopian Jewry is to work for the release of Jewish families from Ethiopia and to resettle these families in Israel. The officers of Park Avenue Synagogue have responded to the appeal of the Network and the synagogue is sponsoring a family this year.

Congratulations

The congregation offers a hearty Mazal Tov to:

Rita Lewis Rand

Rita Lewis Rand and her family are long time members of Park Avenue Synagogue. She and her husband, Alfred Rand, established the Rita and Alfred Rand Fund for Teachers' Benefits at Park Avenue Synagogue. Her daughter, Sara, was married at Park Avenue Synagogue and her grandchildren, Ralph Gore Davidson and Elizabeth Gore Ross, celebrated their Bar and Bat Mitzvah with the congregation.

Mrs. Rand was raised in Tulsa, Oklahoma where her parents were active in community affairs. She attended Goucher College and after World War II moved to Wichita, Kansas with her husband, Ralph Gore, and there received a degree in Petroleum Geology from Kansas University.

In 1955 she and her family moved to New York City. Having worked with handicapped children at the Institute of Logopedics, in New York Mrs. Rand became active in Federation and UJA and especially in the New York Service for the Handicapped. She serves on the Board of New York Service and represents them on the Jewish Camp Association Board. She is an institutional trustee of UJA/Federation.

Mrs. Rand established the Ralph Gore Blood Bank at Beth Israel Hospital in memory of her husband who died suddenly in 1962. Two years later she married Alfred Rand. Together they are bridge enthusiasts and regularly attend and win many regional and national bridge tournaments. Both are listed in the Encyclopedia of Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Rand have also established and maintain the Alfred and Rita Rand Salinity Laboratory at the Ben Gurion University in the Negev, at which experimental work is performed on the possibilities or irrigating plants with salt water.

Henry Schneider

Henry Schneider and his family have been members of Park Avenue Synagogue for more than thirty years. His son, Michael, and his recently deceased daughter, Barbara, attended the Religious School, Michael celebrating his Bar Mitzvah with the congregations.

Mr. Schneider was born and raised in New York City and is a graduate of CCNY and the Columbia Law School, where he was Notes Editor of the Law Review. He now serves as Special Counsel to the law firm he joined upon his graduation from law school. He served in the United States Army during World War II and was part of the Army of Occupation (Germany) from 1945 to 1946.

Mr. Schneider is a member of several professional organizations and public service organizations. He is a trustee of the Central Park Conservancy, a member of the Corporation of the New York Botanical Society and a trustee of the Hebrew Arts School. He serves as Director and President of Remlig Oil Company and a Director and officer of numerous other United States and foreign non-public corporations.

Mr. Schneider is married for forty years to the former Jacqueline Barasch, who, herself, is an active community volunteer.

The Schneiders have three grandchildren: Maxwell Schneider and Robert and James Bruckner.
